DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 13-18, 23, 24, 25-30, 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Merl. The patent to Merl teaches structure as claimed including a product management display system, comprising a base (56) for operative coupling to a shelf, a divider (34) for dividing displayed merchandise into rows, wherein the divider extends outwardly from the base, and a pusher ((58), the pusher movable in a first direction, the pusher including a pusher face (130) that is extendable in a second direction from a first position to a second position, the pusher face is extendable in the second direction from the first position to one of a plurality of second positions, the pusher face is extendable in a second direction that is substantially perpendicular to the first direction, the pusher face is mounted to a pusher base, a biasing element (the slant). In response to applicant's remarks, pusher face(130) meets the limitation "including a pusher face that is extendable transversely relative to the track" and "slidably configured to extend substantially perpendicular to the track".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3637

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 19, 20, 31, 32, 36-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Merl in view of Spamer et al. The patent to Merl teaches structure substantially as claimed as discussed above including biasing means, the only difference being that the biasing means in a spring structure. However, the patent to Spamer et al teaches the use of providing a biasing structure in the form of a coil spring to provide a biasing structure for a pusher to be old. It would have been obvious and well within the level of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to modify the structure of Merl to include a biasing coil spring since such structure is a conventional alternative structure used in the same intended purpose, thereby providing structure as claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Claims 21, 22, 33, 34, 40-43 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 06/14/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
